Training of judges for the international Youth Fire Brigade competitions in 2022 of 15-17th October 2021 in Linz

Ladies and gentlemen, again to ensure a regular and youth-friendly review at the 23. International Youth Fire Brigades competitions in CELJE (Slovenia) 2022, but also to convey to the Competition Rules 7th edition of 2012 for the International Youth Fire Brigades competitions, will the reviewers offered a reviewer training as in previous years.

This reviewer training the reviewers of the National Fire Brigade associations given the opportunity, on the basic of practical exercises to gain experience but also to acquire knowledge about the handling of the Competition Rules.

Given the encouraging high power density are the winning groups in their results extremely tight at the top, so to view a regular review of decisive importance. In addition, all participating groups have the right to be objective and equally assessed or evaluated. It is therefore necessary that the evaluators to the 23rd International Youth Fire Brigades competitions according CELJE 2021 (Slovenia) are sent to participate in this training in the fall 2021. It intends to send only those Contributor which are also involved in the activities with the young firefighters in the National Fire Brigade associations.

These courses have been proven in the past, from 1996 to 2018 and again well as paving the way for the next Contributor International Youth Fire Brigades competitions 2022 CELJE, Slovenia.
